

NATRC Clinic and Competitive Trail Ride (CTR) Agenda

June 4, 2022

- 7:45-10:45 CTR: Volunteers in parking area to assist tying your horse (if attending ride)
- 8:00-8:30 CLINIC: Registration Check In – Pick up your packets
- 8:30-10:30 CLINIC: Welcome, Introductions, Lectures, and Demonstrations (main gathering shelter)
Lecture Topics: Welcome, introductions
What is NATRC
Arriving in Camp at a Competition
Horse vital signs; P&R demonstration
Ride Briefing
Map reading, pacing your ride, trail ribbons
Timing Out demonstration, Mount demonstration
NATRC 1 mile rule
Keeping track of wait time
Trail safety and courtesy
Post ride care for the horse and you
What the judge is looking for
- 8:30-9:30 CTR ONLY People: Registration Check In – sign waivers and get rider packet
- 10:00 ALL: Ride Briefing
- 10:35 CLINIC: Check in demonstration (arena)
- 10:50-11:50 ALL: Horse/rider check in (arena) with judge (halter and lead rope)
ALL: Obstacle course practice; get feedback from experienced (blue vest) competitors
- 12:30 CTR: First horse times out with ride timer (tacked up and ready to ride)
CLINIC: Clinic ends after horses time out.
- ~3:30-4:00 CTR: Check out horses in arena (about 30 minutes after you arrive back in camp or when judge is in arena)
- ~4:00 Time with experienced mentors (yellow name tags).
- As soon as possible Awards (1st – 6th place plus prizes for all)

Sunday Competitive Trail Ride Agenda (June 5)

- 8:00-8:30 Registration: Check-in with ride secretary – sign waivers and get rider packet
- 8:45 Ride Briefing
- ~9:15 Horse/rider check in (arena) with judge (halter and lead rope)
- ~10:00 First horse times out with ride timer (tacked up and ready to ride)
- ~1:30 Check out horses with judge in arena (about 15-30 minutes after back in camp, or when judge is in arena)
- As soon as possible Awards (1st – 6th place plus prizes for all)