NOW!

...IS THE TIME!

Now is the time to mark your calendar and mail your check. It's time to beat the rush to Denver for "Colorado Gold Rush – The 1994 NATRC National Convention" February 18-19, hosted by YOU, Region III.

Yes, NATRC riders from across North America will flock to the heart of our region next February to learn, laugh and let loose. And the convention committee hopes you'll be right there in the midst of all the fun since this national convention is here at home.

Read on to see what you have to look forward to:

Dr. Heird of Colorado State University Equine Sciences and Veterinary Medicine School will cover two topics: How Horses Learn and The Instinctive Behavior of Horses. Woven together, these topics can improve your horse-human communication and make you and your horse a better trail-ride team.

Dr. Terry Swanson of the noted Littleton Large Animal Clinic (and one-time NATRC veterinary judge) will discuss The Competitive Trail Horse: Form to Function. At the end of this seminar, you will have a greater appreciation and understanding of what it takes for a horse to be a successful competitive trail ride campaigner.

A panel of winning competitive trail riders will engage the audience in a lively panel discussion called Prepare for Success: 101 Creative Positions in Horsemanship. This will be a time to share secret tips and get answers to those puzzling horsemanship questions.

Allene Mourne is an avid bit collector with more than 300 different bits. Her presentation on Bits and Biting will cover the conformation of a horse's mouth, points of control, the lessons of leverage and the purpose behind different bit designs. This seminar will help you cut through a bit of the confusion.

Ready to jump off the tentative list and onto the schedule is a presentation on the Psychology of Winning (tailored to competitive trail riding, of course) by an enthusiastic, energized and informative speaker from the Center for Creative Leadership. We know this talk will be a winner!

We also plan to have an outstanding group of vendors and program advertisers. If you want to be included, please call Karen Laden at 719-495-3892. As always, the rates are reasonable!

And if you get to the conference early, or have some free time on Thursday, plan to attend the NATRC national board meeting. It's more fun than just reading the minutes!

What's on the schedule for grins and giggles?

Cowboy poet Fred Ellis, for starters. A hit at last year's Region III conference, he will entertain you during lunch on Friday.

For our big Friday night on the town, we'll head to historic Central City. We will get you there and back in a nice bus and give you credit to play some games at the legendary Glory Hole Saloon and Gaming Hall. We'll also give you $10 in gaming tokens that can be redeemed for cash. If you play your cards right, the evening will turn out to be both fun and free. The Central City trip is a

President's Message

By Kathryn Utke, Region 3 President

We had a great time on the Colorado Trail Workday. Jim and Marguerite Porter, Dick and Ike Mosgrove, and Calvin Utke and I put in a whole day taking care of the NATRC Region III-adopted Colorado Trail. The trail is seven miles total starting at Copper Mountain Village and going seven miles to Searle Pass, above timberline. The wild flowers were in total bloom and just beautiful. The creek was a little down from springtime. Thanks to Neal McKinstry, who brought his horses, we packed in chainsaws and tools. We added a log to one of the foot bridges over the creek. Neal used his horse to help drag a tree down the mountain side so we could make this bridge. Thanks to horse power and a lot of man power (and woman power) we accomplished our goal! We also started clearing the path of logs with a chainsaw. Next year we will need more volunteers to help us clear more logs and work on bogs (no rhyme intended). The country is beautiful! Call me to add your name to the list.

Have horse, have land, have ride, have volunteers, will travel!

Upcoming election!!!

by Dean Schrader, nominations chair

According to Section I of Article I of the By-Laws:

"The Board of Directors shall be made up of ten senior members. There shall be elected one representative from each of six districts of Region III and four members elected from the Region, At-Large. The district representatives shall be elected by membership of their respective districts. Each member of the Board of Directors shall serve a two-year term. Each year, five members shall be elected to the Board of Directors. In case no representative is nominated from a district, that position shall fall to an At-Large position for that term."

The ballot will go into the mail on Oct. 15;
so do your part as a Region III member – VOTE!

Being a member of the Regional Board is an opportunity for members of Region III to be of service to their sport and to have an opportunity of contributing toward the improvement and success of our Region.

It is the responsibility of those Board Members who are leaving to take the lead in nominating their replacements. If the district cannot come up with a nomination, then we will nominate someone to run At-Large.

National Board Member Dean Schrader is the Nominating Committee Chairman. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Board should contact him at (303) 790-2558 or write to him at 9755 Bay Land, Castle Rock, CO 80104. We encourage anyone to become an active participant in the governing process of Region III. This is an opportunity to give back a little to the sport that has given us all so much.

El Jinete challenging and entertaining

by Patti Embree, ride chairwoman

It was a beautiful weekend in the mountains for the 15th Annual El Jinete Solitario ride, held in Durango, Colo. We had a few new people to this ride from as far away as Louisiana and Missouri. They loved our mountains and the fact that they were riding on dry trails and in dry weather. Actually, Missouri, we could use a teensey bit of that rain . . .

Our judges had to cancel a couple of days prior to the ride due to a family emergency. At the last minute I was scrambling and was very lucky to find Patsy Conner and Dr. Joe Quintana on short notice. If any of you have ever managed a ride, you know the pucker factor in this! Patsy and Joe had some creative obstacles that challenged all divisions. One that the Open division has done several times before – side passing over a log to the left – some forgot which direction left was! A back-up out of a creek left one rider cooled off. I think we separated the Open scorecards and left the Novice division with some obstacles to practice on. At the end of the ride, everyone was still smiling and commenting about the views.

Then . . . the entertainment began. I dreamed up a stick-horse barrel racing gymkhana to fill the gap until awards. All ages could – and did – enter. The crowd cheered the participants on as they raced, trotted, got off trail and some came limping across the finish line. Pat Jubb and Kathe Hayes were the official timers and judges. The "over the hill gang" age bracket had one of Region 3's finest – Neil McKinstry – win! This ride never lacks for fun.

Hope you all come back next year. Many thanks to the numerous people who helped with this ride and hope to see you guys next year too. Happy trails!

REGIONAL BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Meeting called to order by President Kathryn Utke. In attendance: Kathryn Utke, Joyce Calhoun, Ike Mosgrove, Neil McKinstry, Laurie Butterfield, Susie Witter, Karen Laden, Mary Lou and Rick McManaman, Dee Overholt.

Treasurer's Report: Approved as read. Per Joyce; Cavalier and Region III split proceeds from the spring clinic.

Secretary's Minutes: Secretary wishes to thank BOD member Susie Witter for taking minutes of this meeting in her absence. Minutes from last meeting were mailed to BOD members.

Old Business: 1. Telephone survey - Dean Schrader not present to report. 2. 1993 ride season - Neil McKinstry stated that there has been some problems with Open riders allowing other riders to pass on the trail during competitive rides. Discussion of problem included constructive suggestions of writing a letter of support of judges when abusive riders elicit decisions for disqualification from competition. Also proposed a short article being included in Region III Newsletter on "Courtesy" and identified a need for ride stewards to come to rides prepared to meet and deal with disqualifications resulting from discourtesies. 3. Report on changing Region III Annual Seminar from November to February (following National Convention) elicited only one response from membership at large. It was in favor of the February date. Motion made by Joyce/2nd by Karen to hold the regional seminar in February on a date that does not conflict with National Convention. Approved. 4. National Appreciation Award - identified a need for solicitation of votes to be in upcoming newsletter so that they can be mailed, received and tallied to take to National Board Meeting scheduled in November. 5. Sue Bretag Award - nominees and voting will take place at regional breakfast meeting in February. 6. Regional board members whose term of office is concluding will need to get names of persons to replace them for membership consideration and ballot. They are Kathryn Utke D-2, Karen Laden At-Large and Jill Talbot At-Large. It should be noted that these people may run for BOD again if they wish. 7. Region III Newsletter deadline is Sept. 15. 8. National board representatives reported that a vote will occur at November meeting on proposed requirement for all Junior competitors being required to wear helmets beginning with '94 ride season. Also, the Championship Ride seems to be organized and ready to go. 9. Membership - Ike reported current membership at 144. Lists were handed out to BOD members present. 10. National Convention - Mary Lou presented tentative schedule for the February 18-20 event (see page 3 of this issue). 11. Region III Benefit Ride - Rick McManaman reported need for volunteers, especially drivers and vehicles to move P&R teams, judges and staff around Golden Gate Canyon State Park during the ride.

New Business 1. Next meeting scheduled for November 20, 1993 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in either Frisco or Vail. Kathryn Utke will advise location later. 2. National Convention meeting is scheduled for October 23, 1993 at Pat Jubb's home.

Respectfully submitted - Sue McKelvy, Secretary
