Regional riders tops at IAHA championship

Excerpted from IAHA, Steve Rendahl

Region III open rider Neal McKinstry and his horse Schar Royal have claimed the 1993 International Arabian Horse Association (IAHA) Competitive Trail Ride Championship. The ride was held October 8-9, 1993 in the Manzano mountains east of Albuquerque, New Mexico, shortly before the IAHA U.S. National Show. The win established the seventy-four-year-old Neal of Fruita, Colorado, and the gelding he calls "Isom," as the best competitive trail team in the United States and Canada for the year.

For Neal and Isom's efforts, they received a Gladys Brown Edwards bronze trophy, a top ten plaque and ribbon, an IAHA silver completion buckle, a saddle donated by Ulster International, Inc., a top ten horse blanket donated by Schneiders Saddlery, nutritional supplements donated by Custom Service, Inc. and Rubbermaid, and the Ed Fischer traveling trophy. After receiving all that loot, Neal's response was "my goodness."

Isom is a 13-year-old gelding who began his career on the racetrack. Recovered from an accident when he blew his knee out, he has since become a champion competitive trail horse. Neal is a long-standing competitive rider and tireless worker for the IAHA. Neal bred Isom himself and he is by the champion show ring horse Sharif. When Neal and Isom entered the ring at the U.S. Nationals for their victory pass, Isom had to coaxed in – the look in his eyes said, "Where are the trees? The water? The rocks? I don't wanna go in there!"

Neal wasn't the only Region III rider to clean up at the Championship. An ecstatic Audrey Taylor and her 7-year-old gelding

Deyllynn Moyaia picked up the Half-Arabian Champion title. She carried similar prizes home to Alameda, New Mexico. Deyllynn is by El Senor, out of a mustang dam, 16.2 hands tall and weighs 1,450 pounds.

Not to be outdone by the senior regional riders, 13-year-old Lea Alsup from Bloomfield, New Mexico, won the Championship Youth Jacket for her ride on Dsah Doha. The nearly sixty years of age difference between Neal and Lea demonstrated that competitive trail riding is a lifelong sport and that sixty-six miles in the mountains can breathe life into horses and riders of all ages.

Reserve Champion Arabian was Bolero Breeze, ridden and owned by Michelle Glover of Wylie Tex. Michelle is a NATRC veterinary judge as well as a competitive rider.

Other top ten finishers include Independance Dai, ridden by Sena Fitzpatrick; Doms Samsson, ridden by Linda Werner; Sir Sea Storm, rider Jenny Smith; and SA Boomer, Lonnie Smith up.

The ride was managed extremely well by IAHA Region 8 Director Bob James. The judges were Dwight Hooten, Harrodsburg Kentucky; Jerry Weil, Great Bend, Kansas; and Joe Quintana of Farmington, New Mexico who worked pleasantly and tirelessly for three days. Trail master was Robin Claxton, the P&R captain was Steve Ancell and who else but Bill Smith made sure everyone was well-fed. IAHA President James O'Neal was present daily and told the riders that International wants to make the IAHA competitive trail ride the premier event for the sport.

Next year's event is planned for September 30-October 2 at Tanglewood Acres in the Pike State Forest near Bainbridge, Ohio.

McKelvy's Musings

By Susan McKelvy, Region 3 President

My friend and riding buddy Dee Overholt, is in shock. My friend and husband Jack, just shook his head and smiled. I'm still coming to grip with the realities of the office.

Whatever your reaction, let's get together this year to build Region III into the kind of organization supportive of the sport and its participants – horses, riders, support workers, ride managements and representatives to the boards for Region III and national NATRC. To that end, my phone number is (303) 838-2531. Call me, or any board member if you have a criticism, concern or praise for our program. Your board of directors has adopted goals of more publicity and promotion of NATRC and trail riding, and promotion of fun, education and adaptability for our members. Speak up! Volunteer! Participate! We've a great schedule of rides this year – sunshine guaranteed on all of them – all we need is you!

A great start is the National Convention and Region III Awards Breakfast. Both events are scheduled in Denver, Feb. 18-20. Send in your registrations now so we don't miss you and you won't miss out on the enlightening and entertaining speakers, fun and fellowship that will cascade over to our Rocky Mountain trails this spring. I may be your president but you all are our VIP's. – Sue McKelvy

(and bring the riders of your horse's friends)

- 9 Spice up your conversation with a few cowboy poems from poet Fred Ellis – he/she's tired of "walk; trot; watch out for that tree – oh my knee!"
- 8 Find out from Dr. Terry Swanson that his/her feelings of pride and self-importance, in regard to that beautiful horse body, are truly justified!
- 7 Discover from James Heird, Ph.D., what every horse wants every rider to know about how he/she thinks and learns best.
- 6 Learn from Allene Mourne what he/she likes and hates about those bits.
- 5 Stop blaming him/her for poor scores by working on your own mental preparation skills for peak performance with Fortune 500 and Olympic speaker Roberta Vasco Kraus, Ph.D.
- 4 Get horsemanship tips from winning riders so you can be a better team player.
- 3 Bring home his/her ribbons to hang in the barn.
- 2 Buy some new tack so he/she looks sharp for the new ride season.
- 1 Give him/her a long weekend to sleep, frolic and munch a little hay.

Hall of Shame

(Take Pat Jubb's challenge!)

Region III's Pat Jubb challenges NATRC riders throughout the nation to air their dirty horsemanship laundry – if they dare!

Scrounge up the worst, most embarrassing picture you've got of you and your horse out on the competitive trail – if you're tough enough! Bring in the photo (enlarged, please) to the convention and check it in at the registration table by noon on Friday.

An elite team of judges will choose the best of the worst and announce the winner Saturday night.

What does the winner get for being a brave, good sport? A free ride entry in the winner's region, donated by Pat Jubb. But watch out! Pat's picture is a doozy, and she thinks she'll win. So answer the call; respond to the challenge and enter the Hall of Shame!

There's a new angel in heaven

*There's a new angel in Heaven today
He arrived there on horseback they say.
A cheerful "Hi there" was heard all about
As he slowly descended from his strong mount.
His bright blue eyes and million dollar smile
Were welcomed by those who hadn't seen him in a while.
Those of us he left behind will hurt for quite a while
But it will ease our pain a little to remember his loving smile.
Now he will be watching over us from Heaven up above
And showering us all with his everlasting love.
We were all blessed so very much
By sharing his love and such.
So remember our dear Carl for the love he shared
And for showing us all just how much he cared.
We shall not forget our loved one and friend
Who fought so courageously, to the bitter end.
There's a new angel in Heaven today
Who has made it a beautiful place -
With his friendly, "Hi there," bright blue eyes and smiling face.*

REGIONAL BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Supplies (Dee Overholt): Pat Jubb said need to send ride management packets to southwest-area rides because of need for reporting worker points, ride results, fees, etc. Pat continues to experience problems in timely reporting from rides on this critical info. Check sheets with SASE to each ride management will be used this season for faster response to Pat.

Nominations (Dean Schrader): Dean and Susie Witter were thanked for their efforts for the 1994 BOD.

Convention: Sue McKelvy reported of a request by JR Kendall regarding Region III provide free convention access to a trucker who proposes to haul NATRC secretarial files and furniture at that time. Response was negative as it is BOD's feeling that this is a National NATRC-related business expense. Dean will contact Mr. Kendall about this issue. Discussion of selling NATRC-related items for sale at the convention. Laurie Butterfield will check with Gloria Becker about providing these items. Kathryn discussed the doorprizes be mailed or brought to her. Use of imagination and funny bones is encouraged when selecting the prizes. (Just wait 'til you see some of them!) Membership list will be provided to convention vendors for sales lists, as this has already been done in the past. The Region III treasury has been paid back for the $500 advance to the committee for convention expenses.

Ride schedule: (See page 2 of this issue for tentative schedule.) Note that all ride information is due to Sena Fitzpatrick for inclusion in Ride Book by Feb. 5, 1994. Laurel Whiting would like to do a clinic in her Hotchkiss, Colo. area. Neal McKinstry will contact her and see if their two clinics could be incorporated. Laurel has also included a letter expressing her views regarding proposed changed to National Championship. It will be forwarded to Hoof Print re: the Feedbag standing column.

Benefit ride: BOD would like to see the Western Slope (especially El Jinete Solitario ride) take it this year and all vow support no matter where it is held. Lois will check with Janine on this.

New Business: Neal reported that the IAHA has developed a set of rules regarding local competitive rides. He is considering putting one on this year and will keep Region III posted. A $500 start-up was approved to give to Sena to print the 1994 Ride Book. Joyce suggested that 100 worker points be awarded (retroactively) for the position of Safety Rider Chairman. Motion passed. Clarification of driver's and P&R chairperson's points was made. Gary Poovey is now a fully-accredited horsemanship judge. Lois has a friend with a big tent with sides that can be used for front range rides. The "tent person" will receive 50 worker points per ride in the future.

BARN SALE

1/2 Arabian mare (7/8), 6 yrs. old, flashy, chestnut with flaxen mane and tail, excellent on trails and has worked cattle. Advanced intermediate rider. $2,500. Call Marty (303) 665-5281.

Arab gelding, handsome, stylish, intelligent, has comfortable gaits. 10 yrs., 15.1 h, four even socks and a fantastic blaze — a great-looking horse with a great attitude for trail riding/competitive trail. It's what he REALLY WANTS TO DO! $2,500. Call (303) 660-1249.

Spring is coming soon — it's the time when people start to think about riding — think about running your Barn Sale ad in the next issue! Look on page 2 for details.

New Region III officers are: President Sue McKelvy, Vice President Susie Witter, Secretary Nancy Reinhardt and Treasurer Joyce Calhoun.

1994 BOD goals: Retain last year's goals, plus improve communications and cooperation between Region III's districts in place of the National Convention which will be another Region's responsibility. Standing rule regarding seminar date will be tabled until April meeting. Next board meeting will be April 9. Suggestions for Durango, Grand Junction or Denver area as possible locations. Concern about lack of attendance at regional BOD meetings by District 5 representative was aired. Janine has missed 3 meetings and by-laws state she loses her position when that happens. Judy Cumberworth (appointee for Frank Bowman) has served out the term and is no longer on board. Sue McKelvy will contact Janine. Meeting adjourned.

Computerized membership mailing labels offered

Joyce Calhoun is in charge of computerization of membership for Region III. She takes care of the mailing labels for the Region 3 Newsletter and provides labels for ride chairs and clinic organizers. These lists offer much information and can be categorized by districts, zip codes and include people who have ridden in the past two years. They can be helpful to solicit participants for all Region III NATRC events. Note to ride managers: Submit requests for rider lists with ample time for Joyce to prepare them, not at last minute, please! The fee is $5. Contact Joyce Calhoun at 761 W. El Portal, Pueblo West, CO 81007 (719) 547-3152.
