President's Message:

YEAH! WE ARE IN A NEW YEAR! The Christmas Holiday's were busier than usual for the Feazell's. Christmas Day brought over 20 inches of snow in Cedaredge, Colorado. We still have a Winter Wonderland at our place, as it has been way to cold for the snow to melt. Hope all of you and your critters are staying warm and enjoying the winter rest.

As I began looking at the Awards from 2015, my enthusiasm for NATRC has been renewed. The awards won at the National Level by Region 3 members once again, helped me realize what fabulous competitors we have in Region 3 and how well we stack up against the other regions. Hopefully Region 3 will be well represented at the National Convention in Reno, Nevada on February 20, 2016.

The number of Region 3 awards for 2015 increased dramatically over 2014. We have 10 more competitors receiving awards, for a 33.3% increase. We will need 22 more medallions engraved for High Point Horse and Horsemanship awards for 2015, a 39% increase. The 3 new Novice Awards had only one member qualify for one of those awards in 2014, this year we had multiple members qualify and all 3 awards had winners. Competitive Pleasure had 2 horses qualify for CP Champion horse and none qualified in 2014. We had 109 different horses and 102 different riders record mileage. 12,640 miles were recorded for horses and the same miles for riders. We had 8 members inducted into the 100% club for 2015, last year there were only 3, plus we had an additional ride in 2015. All in all, a great year for Region 3! Everyone who rode and/or volunteered should give themselves a great big "PAT ON THE BACK"!

I would like to encourage all award recipients to attend the Convention in Cripple Creek, Colorado on March 19, 2016 and personally accept your awards. Chuck Smith and Susan Halterman have been working hard to organize this convention for all members. Chuck still needs more stories for the History Book. I saw a quote the other day and it may apply to those who haven't written anything yet. "Every person is a story and therefore a Storyteller. Trouble is that most fear failure so they never begin." If you are having trouble writing about yourself, go interview whoever mentored you and write a story about them. The deadline for stories is January 31st.

We have some great Worker Point Awards to present at the convention as well. Those of you who didn't ride but volunteered or rode some and volunteered some need to come and accept your special awards too.

The guest speakers Chuck has lined up for the convention will be very unique and informative, so bring an open mind, sit back and enjoy. You will also be receiving "The Ride Books" for 2016 at the convention. Again, please come join us in Cripple Creek on March 19, 2015. Cheer on your friends and celebrate a great 2015 ride season.

GET ON THE STICK and send in your registration.

Can't wait to see you in Cripple Creek in March!
 Juleen Feazell and SAS's Smokey Annie Oakley

From the Editor...

With 2016 upon us, many people make New Years resolutions. I will be resolute to get the newsletter out more regularly. To help with that I jotted down some notes

My New Year's resolutions are:

1. Stop making lists.
- B. Be more consistent.
7. Learn to count.

Good luck with your resolutions! John

Awards can be confusing and at times seem redundant. Listed in the Stirrup are the Region 3 and National Championship results. Included in each category is an abbreviated explanation of each award. Most of Region 3's awards are accumulated points, for a complete breakdown of how points are accumulated go to NATRC web site (<http://www.natrc.org/documents Ride.htm#Rules>), Page 9-6 of the Rule Book and you will find the detailed breakdown of how points are distributed.

If you have any questions about awards, please contact the Awards Chair, Juleen Feazell via email gjfeazell@tds.net

Region 3 Year End Mileage

Horse and Rider Mileage Awards are given each year when certain levels of mileage are achieved. The Mileage Awards are for rides in Region 3 only. If you rode outside the region those miles accumulated will be reflected in the National Miles Database. If you are between awards increments you will not be listed as you will not be receiving a mileage award. If you have any questions about your horse and/or rider mileage, please contact Juleen Feazell, Awards Chair, gifeazell@tds.net

Food for Thought – Personal Choices, by Sharon Roper-Dashner

As I sit down to write this article, I am struck by all that has gone on in our region over the last few years, and I would ask each of you to indulge me in some of my observations and thoughts.

After serving on the Region 3 Board in the 1980's, managing the Rabbit Valley Ride a couple of times in those years, and riding with some great people who taught me a tremendous amount about myself and my horses, I am struck by the awesome opportunities this sport offers us. What a great "family" this sport creates for each of us, and like all other forms of family relationships, it is not without its gifts and its difficulties.

As with any endeavor that holds great meaning in our lives, it is incumbent upon each of us to look at the reasons we choose to participate, evaluate whether or not we will continue to put our energies into the relationship, or move on to activities that are less stressful when the going gets rough. As many of you know, the Rabbit Valley Ride of 2015 was a culmination of many issues that made me sit back and take pause with a good hard look at whether or not I would stay involved with NATRC. My emotions have taken me on a wild roller coaster ride to be sure, but in the final analysis, I have come to the conclusion that it is worth it to stay. Why would that be?

You see, I am still friends with many people I first met 32 years ago in this sport. That means a great deal to me, and I would hate to close that book without writing the last chapter as I see it. I remember the Rabbit Valley Ride around 1987 when Cee Wolf and her daughter Alice rode their mules on our ride and Cee was 87 years old. I was so struck by her tenacity, that I said in my heart that I would hope to be riding at that point in life myself. I believe with all my heart that this region has something extra special about it, especially when I look at the number of members and the number of rides we offer each season as compared to many of the regions across the nation. That being said, I also believe that if we don't nurture the true values we try to espouse, we will dwindle down to only a few.

I ask that we all examine why we personally do competitive trail. If we don't stay connected to our core values, but rather go the way of the world at large, we allow ourselves to fall into the temptation to be totally self-centered no matter who gets stepped on. Is this the sport we want to support with our time, effort and energy? I believe we can change the culture of what has been happening as perceived by many I have talked with. This includes attitudes of entitlement, winning at all costs, forgetting to have fun, complaining when things don't go our way, disrespecting management and volunteers just to name a few things. I believe it will take all of us stepping up to the plate and setting a new norm.

None of us should be embarrassed for the volunteers who graciously give up a weekend and come to help provide riders with a weekend of superb riding. None of us should be afraid to do the work necessary to manage a ride for the benefit of others. When we make it so difficult on others when problems arise (and I can assure you, problems will arise with each and every ride in one form or another), I am concerned that we will never truly grow nor meet our potential.

The actual definition of competition is the "official participation in an organized sport". An organized sport has rules and guidelines which need to be observed in order that chaos does not overtake the competition. The definition of sportsmanship is "qualities befitting a sportsman" and a sportsman is "a person who can take loss and defeat without complaining or victory without gloating, and one who treats others with fairness, generosity and courtesy." I am asking each of us to honestly evaluate ourselves and answer the question "am I competing fairly and am I a good sportsman?" Do our rides encourage others, new folks and especially our junior riders, to learn by example, want to belong and participate, and gain healthy life skills?

After this year's Rabbit Valley Ride, I was ready to throw in the towel. I asked myself, 'do I need all this stress, anger, complaining, and frustration?' The answer was an astounding NO! However, after much consideration, and the loving help of so many of my NATRC friends, I came to the conclusion that just walking away was not the solution. Will each of you be willing to take a long, hard look at solutions? I believe it will take all of us coming along side each other and making a conscious decision to be a light in the darkness. Many already are doing this, but we can all improve our efforts. We have all contributed in our own ways to the success and to the problems. I intend to double my efforts to contribute more to further success of the organization and think less about myself. Will you join me? It comes down to personal choices and the choice is yours.

NATRC Region 3 Convention 2016

Our 2016 convention will be held in Cripple Creek, Colorado, March 18-19 at the Double Eagle Hotel, Casino, and Conference Center.

Theme: Past, Present, & Future

PROGRAM:

Outdoor medical care and first aid. This speaker can give great advice on what anyone could do in this situation before paramedics can get there.

Marketing/Motivational Speaker. How to get new members and to retain new members. This person is educated in marketing and will give us some great ideas on how we can best market NATRC and move into the future?!

Horsemanship Speaker. Michele Skerl from Freedom Equine located in Crawford , Colorado will be another of the Speakers at the convention in Cripple Creek in 2016. Michele and her wonderful husband Joe, own and operate Freedom Equine LLC. Michele specializes in a new and inventive way to create Partnership with your horse and ways to make your horse solid and confident no matter who is riding them or what crazy situation you may encounter. To find out more about Michele and Freedom Equine, go to Michele's web site at FreedomEquineLLC.com.

The Region 3 History Book is going to be the coolest item ever given away at a Region 3 convention. ONLY those who come to the convention will receive a book Included in their registration. For those who do not come, they will have the option to purchase a history book at a price to be determined.

Awards Banquet, Silent Auction and the Crazy Ride Auction will be held on the evening of March 19th.

Please, set aside the date and plan to attend the Region 3 convention in Beautiful Cripple Creek, Colorado, March 18 -19, 2016. More information will be provided in the July/August Stirrup.
