

Navajo Lake

May 9-11, 2026

Type B1 B2 Leisure

Leisure Division Saturday & Sunday (10 mile loop only) 20 Ride Limit near Aztec, NM

The San Juan Valley Trail Riders invites you to come ride! This ride will traverse varied terrain of mesas, arroyos, beautiful rock formations and pinon forest in the spectacularly scenic area around the Navajo Lake Dam. Come enjoy the fun!

Directions to Camp: The camp is located on NM State Hwy. 539 approximately ¾ mile south of Navajo Dam. When approaching from Albuquerque and Bloomfield, travel east on U. S. 64 to about mile 89, then turn north (left) on NM 539; 5 miles to camp. From Eastern slope Colorado, take CO 172 south through Ignacio to NM 511 and south to Navajo Dam, then south on NM 539 to camp. From western Colorado, go to Durango, head south on Hwy. 550 towards Aztec, NM. Just as you enter Aztec, turn left on NM 173 until it ends at a T. (about 18 miles). At the T go left on 511 which will take you to the top of the dam, where you will have to do a turn around in the parking area to head across the top of the dam. Go up a hill and you'll see camp on your right.

Camp Facilities: Water for horses will be available. Bring your own drinking water. Nights are usually cool so plan to blanket your horse. Two restaurants and a small grocery store are located 8 miles from camp. Emergency Phone: Navajo Lake Visitor Center 505-632-2278 (day) or 505-632-2207 (night). We WILL allow the 12x12 portables panel pens only.

Rules: This ride will be conducted under current NATRC rules. New Mexico state law requires that out-of-state horses have current Coggins and health papers.

Schedule: Riders will check in each day at 8 am followed by briefing and vet check in. Timing out at 10 am.

There is also a Friday evening "social hour" which starts about 4:30-5:00. Please bring a snack to share with the group!

Meals: Management will provide Saturday lunch in camp for ALL volunteers & competitors.

Saturday evening Potluck, everyone bring a side dish.

Awards: Awards each day will be as soon as possible. First through Sixth Place.
